A fresh, funny story about a feisty caterpillar who breaks through his limitations -- and realizes his fondest dream, by New York Times bestselling author. Cuando la oruga Oscar descubre que un día será una mariposa se llena de alegría. Su amiga Edna, una polilla de biblioteca, lo anima a que un día vuele a México junto a las mariposas Monarcas. Para prepararse, Oscar aprende español. Desafortunadamente, cuando Oscar abandona su capullo se da cuenta de que no es una mariposa sino una polilla a la que le gusta comer medias y volar alrededor de un foco eléctrico. En un segundo, sus sueños se ven destruidos. No habrá viaje a México, ¿o sí? Oscar valientemente ignora sus limitaciones y viaja a México.
