

T.I. (Blue Banner Biographies)

Clifford Harris Jr. began rapping when he was only six years old. At nineteen, his hard work and perseverance scored him a record deal, pulling him out of a dark life in a drug-dealing Atlanta hood. Since 2003, T.I. has ruled the airwaves as a rap King. Each of his albums outsold the last, a rare feat in hip-hop. And T.I. keeps aiming higher. An actor, a fashion designer, and head of his own production company, the King easily conquers it all with his knack for business. But with such a bright future ahead of him, can T.I. shake his shady past?
