Pup Pups First St. Patricks Day The Pup Pup Series Pup Pups First St. Patricks Day is a family-themed celebration of St. Patricks Day and all of its fabulous traditions. Holidays are lots of fun, but they are even more fun when youve got a super cute German Shepherd puppy to share them with! It has been a long winter but March has finally arrived. Pup Pups adopted family is excited about two special occasionsthe first day of spring and St. Patricks Day. On the 17th day of March, Pups Pups entire family dresses up in green clothing because it is a St. Patricks Day tradition to dress in green. Can dogs celebrate St. Patricks Day? Of course they can! Pup Pup is given a handsome green bandana to wear because he is a member of the family, too. Curious Pup Pup listens as Mom, Dad, Scarlett, and Zak talk about mysterious leprechauns and dancing fairies. They talk about pots filled with gold and the pretty, green three-leaf clovers that grow all over Ireland. Pup Pup learns that Ireland is a lush, clover-covered land and that green represents growth and renewal. Best of all, he watches as Mom cooks a new type of food that he has never smelled before. It is called corned beef and cabbage and it smells delicious! Join in on the fun as Pup Pup and his family dance to Irish music, eat Irish food, and celebrate everything Irish! Features colorful, engaging illustrations Focuses on wholesome, family-centered St. Patricks Day traditions Dont be left out in the fun download you Pup Pup book today!
