

The Secret of Santas Songbird: African American Cover Edition

Meet Chipper the songbird, a Northern Cardinal who is rather slow at growing his feathers. He can only hope to be like other birds. Chipper is destined by the nature of his own heart, to deliver a Christmas gift not even Santa sees coming! This beautifully written narrative poem shares the spirit abiding within. It also shares a wonder of nature, to invite every child to realize nature's gifts. No other book of its kind compares to this one's notoriety and compliment among ACEO artists worldwide! Perhaps this is because the book itself has a secret. Anyone can add their own art on paper to any page! So embellish the pages of your choice or enjoy the story as it stands, heart to heart.----- he pages of Santas Songbird softcover storybooks facilitate the addition of your choice of compatible art on paper. This makes it possible for you to embellish the story in ways unique to your own vision, turning out a priceless keepsake or gift. Young children can decorate a copy with their own favorite stickers or use blank 3 x 5 index cards to create their own pictures to be displayed in the book using photo corners.-----
